WFSJ extends proposal deadline

Time's arrow flies in only one direction, but this harsh truth can be tackled with the second chances that life sometimes offers. Like this one:

Because so many of you asked so nicely ...

and because we know you are busy with many other professional tasks in addition to putting together incredible conference session proposals ...

and because we have a soft spot for science writers who are facing all kind of other challenges in their lives ...

we are extending the deadline to submit a proposal for the 2022 World Conference of Science Journalists until Monday 27 September 2021.

So if you thought you had missed your opportunity to put forward a virtual or in-person session for this major event, think again — you have a second chance. As before, we are counting on you to help us make this ground-breaking event as outstanding and memorable as possible. When you are ready, head to our proposal portal, where you will be welcome for two more weeks. We look forward to seeing what you have in mind!
